RULES AND REGULATIONS

CONTESTANTS AND ELIGIBILITY

1. Each state is invited to enter one contestant in this contest.
2. Individuals may be selected by any procedure which a state deems appropriate.
3. Contestants must be at least 14 years of age, but not have reached his or her 19th birthday as of January 1 of the year in which this event is held.
4. All contestants must be members of 4-H in the state they are representing during the year in which this event is held and participation eligibility must be certified by the State 4-H Leader.
5. Certification of participation eligibility should consider the following: "This contestant has not participated in post-secondary coursework in the subject area of the national 4-H competition, nor has he or she participated in training for post-secondary competition in the subject area of the national 4-H competition." See details below.

- A. Post-secondary undergraduate students may participate in and/or complete freshman and sophomore level equine management or communications courses. Students completing a junior, senior or graduate level equine and/or communications course are ineligible to participate in the National 4-H Horse Competition.
- B. Students are ineligible to participate in a National 4-H Horse Competition if they are currently enrolled in courses that provide specific training for the competitive event in which they are participating. For example, student participation in collegiate horse judging events, on intercollegiate horse judging teams and in intercollegiate communication events would eliminate a 4-Her's eligibility to participate in the National 4-H Horse Competition.

6. Contestants (including team alternates) may participate in only one contest per year at the Roundup. After competing in this contest, they are ineligible to compete in the same specific contest again. Contestants must not have competed previously in this contest in the Eastern National 4-H Horse Roundup in Louisville or the Western National 4-H Horse Classic in Denver.

THE CONTEST

1. The subject must pertain to the horse industry. Demonstrations not appropriately related to the horse industry can be disqualified at the discretion of the judges.
2. This may be a demonstration or an illustrated presentation. No live animals may be used.
3. Contestants may use notes. However excessive use of notes may be counted against the contestant. This will be at the discretion of the judges.
4. A public address system will NOT be used during the contest.
5. Contest officials will supply two easels and two tables. Any other equipment needs must be made through special arrangements with the contest officials.
6. Creative audio visual aids may be used but the contestant must be involved in making or designing them.
7. During the contest, the contestants may introduce themselves by name, state and demonstration topic.
8. Demonstrations should be 9-12 minutes in length. Three points will be deducted from the total score on each judge's score sheet for every minute (or fraction of a minute) under 9 minutes or over 12 minutes.
9. Contestants should cite their major references after the conclusion of their demonstrations. This will not be counted in the allotted time.

10. Only the judge(s) may ask questions of the contestant in the contest. Question time will not be counted in the allotted time. Contestants should repeat the question then answer it.

11. Contestant order will be determined by a random drawing and will be announced at the coaches' meeting.

12. Three judges will be used and judges will score each entry independently and assign scores. After all presentations are presented and scores are tabulated, judges may confer and discuss evaluations. Each judge assigns his or her final scores and then cumulative final scores are tabulated to determine the final placings. Contest superintendents may review and check tabulation of scores for mathematical accuracy.

12. Ties will first be broken by the judges' accumulated delivery score, second by the judges' accumulated organization score and third on content and accuracy score.
